San Diego Seaplanes Hop Off For Flight To Panama Canal

WRECK BARES $750 RUM CARGO

14 MACHINES LEAVE BASE HAMPERED BY FOG

Heavy Smoke Screen Marks Route for Flyers on Early Stage of Trip

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 30.—The N. C-5, one of the two largest planes which started on the Panama flight, returned to North Island shortly before noon today with a damaged hull. The plane will be repaired and will leave January 1 to join the other planes down the Mexican coast, it was announced this afternoon.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 30.—The first of the fourteen navy seaplanes starting on the 3,000 mile flight to Panama left the surface of the bay at 8:22 a. m.

Thirteen others followed in rapid succession. The last one leaving at 8:50.

All followed the channel of San Diego harbor around North Island and headed south into foggy sky. They went in single file with no attempt at formation.

Captain Henry Mustin, commander of the Pacific air force, personally led the departing flyers. His flagship is the F-5-L seaplane No. 9. The P-5-L, type of ships—12 of them in two divisions commanded by Lieut. Commander C. P. Mason—were the first to take the air. These divisions were followed by the heavier and faster N-C machines with their triple motors.

Smoke Screen Marks Route Outside the harbor, far to the southwest along the coast, patrol vessels lay at anchor as the airships took wing. These ships of the sea were sending up a huge smoke screen as an aid to the plane pilots. The first stop of the flying fleet was scheduled for this afternoon at one o'clock at San Bartolome Bay. There dinner will be served, the engines gone over and tanks refilled, preparatory to resumption of the flight tomorrow morning.

The next leg of the journey will take them to Magdalena Bay. They will remain there till 8 a. m. of New Year's day, thence taking flight across the Gulf of California to Banderas bay on Mexico's west coast.

One of the real stunts necessary on the trip will be the landing at Salina Cruz, it is stated. There, because of the smallness of the harbor's mouth, the planes must land in the open sea and "taxi" into the harbor, a dangerous feat when the seas are running high.

QUICK CONVICTION FOR VICE GANGSTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—James Carey, the third to be tried and convicted in a group of five alleged gangsters accused of criminal assaults on young girls here, was found guilty a half hour before Edmund Murphy, the first of the gangsters to face a jury, was started for the penitentiary at San Quentin to serve a sentence of from one to fifty years. Carey's sentencing was set for January 3.

Thomas Brady, the fourth accused gangster, will go to trial Monday. The jury took six minutes to convict Carey. Edward Krivosky will come up for sentence on Friday, when efforts will be made to obtain a new trial for him.

Carey admitted driving Miss Jessie Montgomery of Reno, and her companion, Miss Jean Stanley, formerly of Portland, in an automobile from a cafe to a house near by in which the attack took place. He denied all participation in the attack, however, although positively identified by both girls.

GIRL WEEPS AS SHE IS FREED OF BIGAMY

With her crippled 9-year-old son, whose leg is in a cast and who walks on crutches, by her side, pretty Irene Previance Gibson, 22, of Arcadia, charged with bigamy in a complaint filed last month by Edwin M. Glaze, 22, of San Pedro, today heard with emotion the verdict of Justice John B. Cox which freed her from the charge. With tears in her eyes, she thanked the justice for the favorable verdict.

Justice Cox reached the decision not to hold the girl to answer after her attorney, John Richardson, of Los Angeles, recited supreme court cases to show that if the state wished to establish the fact that the crime of bigamy had been committed, it must prove beyond a doubt that the first husband was living at the time of the second marriage, and that a defendant must be considered innocent of the crime until this fact had been established by the state.

Presenting Argument District Attorney-elect A. P. Nelson, presenting the case for the state, maintained that the fact that two marriages had been shown, without being denied, formed sufficient evidence to hold the defendant to answer to the charge in the superior court.

Bassett Gibson, the alleged first husband of the girl, is said to have a San Quentin record, and to be a fugitive from justice on a charge of embezzlement brought by a Covina man. All efforts to locate him as a witness, or in connection with offenses for which he is wanted, proved a failure.

The girl said that she left Gibson when she found out, after marrying him, that he had three other wives living, from whom he had never been divorced.

Seeks to Quash Charge After filing the complaint, Glaze came to Santa Ana several times seeking to withdraw it on the grounds that he did not believe the girl was to blame, and had been tricked by Bassett Gibson.

When he appeared in court today he brought with him the picture of a Los Angeles girl, to whom he claimed that Gibson was also married. He did not know her name, but said she was well known to the police as "The girl of many aliases."

Following her release the girl stated that through the help of Attorney Richardson she hoped to get the entire tangle straightened out, and to become entirely free from Glaze and Gibson.

COUPLE FLEE FOLLOWING ACCIDENT

Police Seize Whiskey and Car, Latter Held Property of Big Gang

Seventy-five pint bottles of bonded whiskey estimated to be worth $750 and a booze-running Dodge automobile believed to be the property of a gang of Los Angeles and San Diego rum runners, are in the possession of City Marshal Sam Jernigan as the result of an automobile crash late yesterday afternoon near Tustin.

Standing in the middle of the highway near Tustin, its right front wheel torn off and contraband booze leaking from a secret compartment under the rear seat, the car was discovered by Road Inspector Nat Neff.

A Mexican, who gave the supposedly assumed name of Pedro Perez, and a white woman, occupants of the car, decamped immediately after the accident and police and prohibition enforcement officers of Southern California were today making a diligent search for them.

Neff notified Constable Jesse Elliot of the accident and in the meantime Perez and the woman had made their way to Santa Ana in the car of a passing autoist. Perez left word at the Dodge garage to have the car towed to Santa Ana.

The accident, which led to the discovery of the booze running plot, occurred when Perez attempted to cut in between two trucks.

The machine was apparently built for special whiskey-running purposes. It had a false bottom beneath the back seat, with a sheet iron compartment. The whiskey was found, which extended under the seat and up behind the upholstery.

Several bottles had been smashed and the stoppers of several others had come out. When the car was found to contain booze Jernigan immediately sent out officers and kept the telephone wires hot in an attempt to locate the bootleggers.

The report of the accident reached the police about 4 p. m. yesterday. Those witnessing the accident, were apparently not aware that the car contained booze.

What is believed to have been a chance to apprehend a number of other members of the alleged whiskey ring was lost when four men in a touring car drove up to the garage next door to the Dodge garage, and asked regarding the wrecked car. The men seemed to have been drinking heavily. The garage man did not take the number of the car, and did not report the fact of their presence in Santa Ana to the police until several hours later.

Signature Only Clew The only clue to the identity of the bootleggers is the fact that the Mexican wrote his name, undoubtedly an assumed one, on a card which he gave to the garage people. The number of the car is 254-866, and is registered as belonging to R. Borken, of 401 Spruce street, San Diego, who, according to meager reports received by Jernigan from the San Diego police this morning, had not as yet been located.

It is thought that the bootleggers were regularly engaged in smuggling booze from Mexico, going from there to San Diego, and thence to Los Angeles, which is believed to be the headquarters of the ring.

Federal agents were expected to arrive here this afternoon to take the whiskey treasure and the confiscated car into custody.

JAP ENVOY FAVORS HALT IN RACE FOR HEAVY ARMAMENTS

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Japan is ready to enter an international conference of limitation of naval armaments, in the behalf of Baron Hayashi, the Japanese ambassador to Great Britain.

In an interview here today, Baron Hayashi declared that the business men of the big navy nations—the men who pay the bills—could reach an agreement on limiting naval building if their countries could arrange such a conference.

Japan, the ambassador declared, is not exceeding her announced naval program. Her preparations must be considered necessary, he said, because she is a sentinel against the spread of bolshevism. He charged a highly organized attempt to bolshevize Japan had been made, and that his country must remain on guard.

In considering the armament problem, he said, the nations should ponder over the fact that armament races sometimes breed war and that war can give birth to bolshevism as in the case of Russia.

3 WESTERN MEN MAY LAND IN CABINET

MARION, Ohio, Dec. 30.—The first cabinet slate has been virtually completed by President-elect Harding, it was learned here today.

The tentative slate is understood to stand as follows:

- Secretary of State—Charles E. Hughes, New York.
- Secretary of Treasury—Charles G. Dawes, Illinois.
- Secretary of War—A. T. Hert, Kentucky.
- Secretary of the Navy—John W. Weeks, Massachusetts.
- Attorney General—Harry M. Daugherty, Ohio.
- Postmaster General—William H. Hays, Indiana.
- Secretary of Interior—George Sutherland, Utah.
- Secretary of Agriculture—Henry C. Wallace, Iowa.
- Secretary of Commerce—Charles Warren, Michigan.
- Secretary of Labor—Herbert Hoover, California.

George S. Christian, Jr., of Marion, is understood to have been decided upon for secretary to the president.

Harding, of course, is reserving the right throughout to change his mind if he deems it wise, and it is possible he will be obliged to shift his men to other posts than those now in mind for them.

New names may have to be substituted for those now on the list. Among those in reserve are:

Charles D. Hilles, New York, and George M. Reynolds, Chicago, for treasurer; Congressman Julius Kahn, California, for war; former Congressman J. J. Esch, Wisconsin, and J. Hampton Moore, Pennsylvania, for commerce; Governor Campbell, Arizona, for interior; Albert J. Beveridge, Indiana, for labor.

Most of the first line men under consideration are targets for criticism from one quarter or another and these influences in some instances may cause Harding to change his mind before inauguration day.

BANQUET AND ENTERTAINMENT BY LADIES OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO S. A. NEWSBOYS IS MERRY EVENT

One of the merriest and no doubt the most enthusiastic of all the affairs ever held in the First Christian church was the banquet and entertainment given last night by the ladies of the church in honor of the local newsboys and paper carriers.

One hundred of the liveliest, sharpest, most active boys in the community swooped down upon the kind ladies in response to their invitation and kept them guessing until it was time to sing "America" and say good-bye.

The evening program started off with a general reception for the boys. From the time the bunch entered the church building there was not a single lull in the entertainment.

Following the reception, Paul Wright's orchestra kept the lads interested with special singing and instrumental numbers until the call for "cats" broke up the concert and the boys swarmed down into the banquet room with gusto.

Luscious Chicken Pie.

The first thing that confronted the banqueters was a round of luscious chicken pie, baked sweet potatoes, mashed potatoes and gravy in liberal portions.

Following this came several salads and pickles and cranberry jam and fruit salad and rolls and cake and cocoa and a list of goodies as long as the genealogy of Abraham, topped off with a big stick of peppermint candy.

And then some more things were passed around but somehow the capacity of the diners eventually "petered out," then they just had to quit eating through lack of further endurance.

With the appetites of the boys fully disposed of, the Rev. F. T. Porter called upon J. P. Baumgartner, editor of The Register, for a speech. This was delivered in just a friendly, heart-to-heart way. He related his own experiences as a newsboy, and mixed in with his story bits of good advice and encouragement without lecturing the boys.

Fishing Party Too.

The newsies were then invited to go "fishing." The fish pond was hidden behind a screen and humorous placards, worked out by Mrs. C. E. Phillips, were posted about the pond warning the fishermen against breaking the laws and exceeding the limit. When the hooks were dropped over the screen into the pond, lo! and behold, they came out with a gift attached. About everything in the dictionary seemed to be contained in that fish pond.

When the pond was fished dry the youngsters cast a last, loving look at the banquet tables and fled up into the main auditorium, where the evening program started.

First came a black-faced dialogue by Miss Eva Taylor and Elwin Taylor. Then a xylophone duet by Misses Marion Gerrard and Helen Skaggs. These numbers were both roundly applauded. Miss Carrie Seaton, pipe-organist, was absent on account of sickness and her part in the program was necessarily omitted.

One of the most interesting features of the program was given by the boys themselves, without a minute's preparation. The Rev. Porter did several sleight-of-hand stunts, one of which was to discover a live rabbit in a cooking dish when a well cooked plum pudding was due to appear.

"Now," said the Rev. Porter, "I'll give this rabbit to the boy who can tell the funniest story."

This invitation to take part in the program was wholly unexpected and it would have "stumped" the average grown-up. But was Young America "phased?" Not at all, notice-able extent. One after another the boys marched up to the rostrum and told a series of the best stories the audience had ever heard, without a bit of hesitation, and told them well.

The story that won the rabbit was told by Arthur Norman, one of the Register carriers, the decision being made by popular vote. This is what he told:

"The other day a couple of boys found a dog. They both wanted it, and they couldn't divide it, so they sent and the one that could tell the biggest lie should have the dog. They both started in and lied and lied, and while they were in the middle of their best lies (here the storyteller winked at the Rev. Porter) the preacher came along. He listened awhile and then said: 'What's this, big yams to me.' And then the boys explained that they were engaged in a lying contest. But the preacher didn't like that and so he said: 'It's very bad, boys, to tell lies under any circumstances. Why I never told a lie in all my life.' Then both the boys heard a sigh and exclaimed in concert: 'Give him the dog.'"

Award Prizes.

As previously announced, prizes were awarded to the tallest boy presently in the church, and the oldest boy in point of continuous service. Lyle Webber, the tallest boy, was given a good baseball from Livezey's. George Schiff received a box of fine candy from the Dragon for being the shortest boy.

Roy King, a Register carrier at Costa Mesa, was awarded a fine watch, presented by the local Rotary club, for having served as a carrier longer than any other boy present. Roy has carried The Register every day for four and a half years without a break.

The lights were turned off and a series of comic pictures were given over stereopticon. This ended with a life-sized picture of "Old Glory," and everybody stood up and sang "America."

Before they left the building, the boys gave a noisy demonstration of appreciation and addressed three cheers and a couple of rah rah's to the ladies of the church who had taken so much trouble to entertain them.

P. O. AWAITS ARRIVAL OF PILGRIM STAMPS

TURKEY DINNER IS TO FEATURE ANNUAL M. & M. ASS'N MEET

A turkey dinner is in store for members of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association. It will be a feature of the annual meeting of the association to be held next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at James's.

Tickets were placed on sale today at $1.50 each. Members who present the tickets at the meeting will be refunded their money. Those who buy tickets and do not attend will forfeit their payments. Tickets may be procured at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The annual dinner and meeting of the association is always a big affair, with business interests of the city well represented. Tuesday night's meeting is being anticipated with delight by a large number of the members.

Business firms are allowed two tickets, with extras available for guests, if desired. Reservations must be made not later than Monday noon. Orders for tickets will not be taken over the phone.

Arrangements are being made for a special speaker to discuss the proposed charter for Santa Ana. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

CEMETERY PETITION WORK NEARING END

"Petitions for the cemetery district must be in by tomorrow night," said J. A. Wallace today. "Petitions have been coming in rapidly, although many of the solicitors in the outlying districts of the county have not yet turned in the signatures that they have obtained."

Wallace is anxious to have as many sign as possible by tomorrow night. Blanks have been provided at the Chamber of Commerce office and are in charge of Miss Arlie Cravath, at the office of J. E. Liebig; at that of Wallace and Goode, Room 230 Spurgeon Building; at the W. F. Tate company; and at the office of Judge E. T. Langley.

It is hoped that with the number of names turned in by the solicitors who have not yet reported and with those who will sign tomorrow the full quota of names will be reached within the required time.

'DOC' STORK BUSY AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Twelve babies so far Christmas week is the record old "Doc" Stork has made at the Community hospital. The latest arrival, Baby Dale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loring J. Dale, born at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was giving at 1:30 as much evidence of her curiosity to see what was doing as were any of the rest of the round dozen. She had not yet known the joys of food, but the other eleven were lustily proclaiming their membership in the "anti-hunger strikers' union."

The nurses at the hospital have been so busy helping "Doc" Stork bring Christmas presents to proud mothers and fathers of Santa Ana that they were unable to have any Christmas for themselves until last night.

The refurbishing of the maternity floor of the hospital was made possible by the kind thoughtfulness of Mrs. Willela Waffle, Mrs. J. M. Burlew, Miss Julia Campbell, Dr. C. M. Tralle, Dr. and Mrs. P. R. Reynolds and Mrs. R. T. Harris. The fund given by these has made the maternity ward what it is and will be until the new hospital, plans for which are underway, materialize.

The total number of babies born at the hospital for the year 1920 is 164, with the Christmas month close to the top with twenty-six.

FULLERTON BANKER IN SANTA FE RY. WRECK

S. W. Smith, president of the Standard bank of Fullerton, who, with his wife and son, has just returned from Billings, Okla., was in the Santa Fe wreck that occurred at 4 a. m. Tuesday, east of Williams, Ariz. It was heard today that the locomotive and twelve coaches were derailed when a pin on one of the main axles of the locomotive snapped. The Smiths were uninjured.

A grey-green beetle has much to do with the present shortage of paper. The beetle is the adult form of the aspen borer, a grub which often destroys plantations of the trees that are so essential to the pulp industry.

HALT BUSINESS TO WELCOME NEW YEAR

New Year's day will be a general holiday with Santa Ana business houses.

Practically all merchants are planning to close on that day, and members of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association will all close their establishments.

The postoffice will be closed all day on January 1. There will be no city or rural delivery on that day, according to announcement today by Postmaster C. D. Overholser.

Many of the business men of the city and their employees are planning to attend the Tournament of Roses and football game at Pasadena. Many other Santa Anas will be out of town, visiting the beaches, the mountains and other points of interest.

An American Legion dance will be a feature of New Year's eve. Special musical numbers by Chapman's six-piece orchestra will be notable features of the evening.

The Lady Cantons will hold a dance on New Year's Eve at the L. O. O. F. hall. Good music and a good time is promised.

Watch Night Services.

Watch night services are to be held at the Spurgeon Memorial church. The Rev. J. A. Wallis, pastor, announced an interesting program. Luncheon is to be served. Music and speaking will feature the various sections of the service, which is scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m. and to close shortly after midnight.

Members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society are planning a watch night party to be held at the home of Miss Edith Plaven, 506 South Birch street.

Kiwanis club members are to be the guests of honor at the first church service of the new year, to be held at the First Methodist Episcopal church, January 2, the club having accepted an invitation from the church.

NEW CERTIFICATES RECEIVED IN S. A.

The Santa Ana postoffice force expects to handle a large number of the $1 treasury saving stamps and $25 treasury savings certificates to be issued by the government after January 1. The postoffice already has received a quantity of the new securities.

Arrangements have not been made with local banks to handle the securities.

The decision to raise these securities comes as a result of the saving campaign carried on by the treasury department during the present year in industrial plants throughout the country.

The new $1 savings stamp is bright red in color imprinted on green tint and bears the head of Alexander Hamilton. This is the first time that the first secretary of the treasury has been fittingly honored by having his portrait on a government savings security.

The new $25 savings certificate is similar in design and terms of the treasury savings certificates of $100 and $1000 maturity value, although different in color.

Plans are already actively under way to make the influence of the treasury savings movement felt in every branch of American life. To this end the three functions of the savings organization, namely, the development and protection of the secondary market for all war issues of government securities; the sale of treasury savings securities; the making permanent the habits of regular savings and investment in United States government securities will be intensified.

BOY SCOUTS RETURN FROM CAMPING TRIP

Scout Master Harold Meyers and Cecil Birtcher took twenty-six Boy Scouts of Troop 6 for a three days' outing in the district beyond the County park, leaving Monday afternoon and returning last night.

The boys selected camp at "Lovers' Rock," and each patrol pitched its tent in short order. A good many of the boys were "tenderfeet" and took some of their first tests. Later they practiced scouting by attempting to take messages to "Robbers Cave" without being caught by those detailed to capture the messengers.

The boys came home tired but happy, and are more enthusiastic scouts than ever. The troop is growing rapidly and will probably be divided at an early date. They take regular hikes every two weeks, and meet every week for scout drill.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR J. D. THOMAS

A large number of sympathizing friends this afternoon paid their last respects to J. D. Thomas, in funeral services held at 2 o'clock at the chapel of Smith and Tutthill.

Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. Mrs. Tom Willis, Jr. rendered "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" and "No Night There," with Clarence A. Gustlin as accompanist. Interment was made in Fairhaven cemetery.

The floral contributions were numerous and beautiful and attested the high esteem in which the deceased was held in this community. Floral pieces sent by the First National Bank, Santa Ana Lodge No. 784, and the B. P. O. E. were among the numerous pieces banking the casket.

The pallbearers were J. R. Porter, P. S. Roper, Norman Hoyle, Volney V. Tubbs, John E. Gowen and F. C. Remsburg.

CRAMER, GRID STAR, HAS FRIENDS HERE

Earl (Curley) Cramer, who made a number of acquaintances and friends in Santa Ana on the occasion of a visit to his uncle, J. W. Schroeder, and other relatives here last winter, will play professional football in Pasadena during the winter, according to a statement in the Winnebago City Enterprise of Winnebago, Minn.

Cramer has made an enviable record as a pigskin artist and before he became identified with the Cleveland football team, professional teams in Minnesota and Ohio made him attractive offers.

The Winnebago City Enterprise, in a recent issue, mentioning Cramer's return home from Cleveland, Ohio, where he played on the fast professional football team of that city during the past season, said:

"Professional football is about as rough a game as they make but they can't make it too rough or fast for 'Curley,' who is one of the greatest fullbacks ever developed in the Northwest. Earl expects to leave soon for Pasadena, where he will play professional football this winter. He is a fine young man in every way, and we wish him all the success in the world."

Schroeder is authority for the statement that about eighty families formerly residing in Winnebago are now living in or near Santa Ana. He says that residents of Winnebago seem to be deserting that city for Southern California.

LEGISLATORS WILL START NORTH SOON

State Senator Walter Eden, Mrs. Eden and Assemblyman W. O. Hart will leave Saturday morning in Eden's automobile for Sacramento, where they plan to arrive in time for the opening of the 1921 legislative Monday.

They will return about February 1 and will be at home during February. The second session of the legislature will convene about March 1.

Miss Corinne Clement, stenographer in the district attorney's office, will probably be designated as an attaché of the assembly. If she is appointed, she will leave for Sacramento the first of next week. Miss Clement was a stenographer for the assembly during the session of 1919.

If State Senator Eden is able to arrange it, Mr. Van Pelt of Riverside, will be named as an attaché of the senate.

MAN IN GIRL CASE IS GIVEN SENTENCE

E. H. Berger, Anaheim rhubarb grower, who was recently convicted of a statutory offense against Dorothy Muirhead, 15, daughter of his housekeeper, by a jury in the superior court, was sentenced today to a term of not more than 50 years in San Quentin by Judge R. Y. Williams.

Judge Williams denied the motion of Berger's attorney, A. E. Koepsel, asking for a new trial on the ground that the judge had not properly instructed the jury, and that the verdict was contrary to the evidence.

AMERICA REDUCING H. C. L. IN ENGLAND

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—American competition on farm products, particularly cereals, is bringing about a reduction of food prices in Great Britain, according to announcement made today by the Department of Commerce here.
"It is officially stated by the British Ministry of Labor that the long looked for drop in the prices of food has now begun and that the tide of high prices is definitely on the ebb," the American Trade Commissioner of London reports.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 30.—Trial of a suit against Mrs. Mary Montgomery Roberts of Los Angeles is now in progress here. She was sued for $13,000 by Attorney John C. Davis, former medical director of the Union Central Life Insurance company. Mrs. Roberts is Davis' widow. His will left a life interest in his $500,000 estate to his 15-year-old son, Clark M. ## City and County

Postmaster Overshiner has received a card signed by Mrs. Fay Nichols, lone, Amador county, reading as follows: "Can you possibly get word to D. O. Roberson and tell him that his brother is very ill in the White hospital, Sacramento. I have been unable to locate Mr. Roberson on a telephone call, so thought possibly you could get word to him." The Santa Ana post office has no address for D. O. Roberson.

Ferdinand F. Thum, reputed millionaire of Pasadena and interested in property at Laguna Beach and valuable business property in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego, was found dead at his Pasadena home. He was 66 years of age and a bachelor. His body was found by his brother, William Thum, his partner in business. The Thum brothers originated sticky flypaper. Ferdinand was born in Detroit. He engaged in the drug business until he began making flypaper in partnership with his brother. Both retired in 1898 and came to Pasadena in 1899.

Robert Moffatt, of Capistrano, whose left shoulder was fractured when, according to witnesses, he walked into the path of an automobile driven by Lynnwood Andrews of this city was today at the home of Ransom Reid, where he was taken after a physician had made an examination. Moffatt, witnesses said, was not aware of the approaching car, which, it was said, was driven very slowly.

Santa Anans who sold Christmas seals are requested to return unsold seals and the money collected to Miss Hazel Bemis, 725 South Main street, before the end of the week. An accounting must be made to headquarters next week and Miss Bemis is anxious that all reports be sent to her promptly. Several schools had not yet turned in their reports, but were expected to today. The final returns will probably be announced tomorrow.

An issue of $10,000,000 in bonds and $10,000,000 in stock is asked by the Southern California Edison company in an application to the State Railroad commission, $12,000,000 to be used for construction purposes, $1,250,000 for restoring maturing securities and $6,750,000 to meet current debts. The commission has taken the application under advisement.

Through the co-operation of many organizations and with the aid of a number of individuals, the Salvation Army was able to aid a larger number of deserving poor and needy than could have otherwise been obtained, according to word received from the headquarters of the organization in Santa Ana. On Christmas day children dinners were given to twenty-five men at the Palace cafe. The Elks lodge delivered seventy-three baskets of Christmas dinners and sixty inmates of the county jail were each presented with a box of candy and an apple. About 120 boxes of candy and nuts were distributed at the Salvation Army tent on Sycamore street Christmas evening.

Waters, assistant farm advisor, who is in charge of the work in the county.

The Orange County Harbor commission met at Newport yesterday, but no matters of consequence were taken up. The morning was taken up with passing on bills of the commission. Progress on the Craig-Irvine negotiations was reported.

Otto H. Wangelin writes from Long Beach requesting the Register to give notice of a reunion picnic of Northern Colorado people at Bixby park in Long Beach Saturday, January 8, 1921. All Orange county people who formerly lived in northern Colorado are invited to attend and bring their friends—also their luncheons. Coffee can be obtained on the grounds.

He told the police he was hunting gold and diamonds and that he had previously been engaged in killing lizards, but was tired of that job and desired a change. The man is 28 years old and lives with relatives at Seal Beach. It was suggested that he be taken to the Los Angeles County hospital for an operation.

MANY GIRLS ARE HUNTING FOR HOUSEWORK

"There are twenty or twenty-five girls and women in Santa Ana who want to do housework. Many of them are looking for regular work as housemaids; others want to get employed by the day or hour and live at home. The situation is very different from what it was only a few weeks or months ago."

These statements were made by Mrs. J. H. Leebick, secretary of the Social Service league, which conducts an employment department. "I have applications from a score or more girls who want positions as maids or who want to do housework of some sort," continued Mrs. Leebick. "It was only a short time ago that the number of those seeking maids outnumbered the applicants. Wages went up. Some of the girls were asking $60 a month, and in some cases more than $60 was demanded."

"There were many, of course, who were in good homes who worked for less than $60, but I have in mind a number of experiences with girls who were exceedingly particular about wages but not very particular about the kind of service they rendered. Even inexperienced Mexican girls got very independent. Ten dollars a week, if you please, would be passed up with a sneer."

Situation Different Now. Housewives are able to get competent help at reasonable wages. I have a number of applicants for positions who are very worthy girls. One reason for the fact that more girls are available for housework is that it is off-season for packinghouses and canneries."

Mrs. Leebick said that she has a number of men listed on her books who want work. With them, too, the number wanting work outnumber those wanting workers.

"Among those wanting work," said Mrs. Leebick, "are quite a number of new arrivals. Pathetic Case. "There is one young man whose case has interested me greatly. He and his wife had and still have a farm in their home town in South Dakota. They wanted to come to California. They had read glowing descriptions of our climate and had seen pictures of our orange groves. They are here, but he can't find employment. He is willing to do any kind of work. He has tramped the city over and has been unable to find a job."

"Possibly his lack of acquaintance has been a handicap to him, but certainly he has tried. "He says he is going to have to return to his farm unless he gets work here. He says that the climate and scenery are all that he expected, but he can't live on them. "The encouragement that this young man has is that conditions in Santa Ana are better than in other cities he has heard about. If he stays long enough, I know he will get a foothold and will become a permanent citizen of Santa Ana."

WINTER CAMP OF 'Y' BOYS IS BIG SUCCESS

With the closing hours of the Y. M. C. A. camp in the snow country of Montana, the boys of the afternoon, "Y" boys were wishing today that the automobiles that were to bring them home would break down and they would be forced to spend another night in camp.

Following the close of one of the most successful winter camps of the Orange county Y. M. C. A., about twenty-seven of the older boys and their leaders, who have been in camp since yesterday afternoon, planned to leave for their homes in various towns of Orange county late today. The boys went into the camp late yesterday and were immediately put to work preparing a place to sleep and eat. The boys worked rapidly and willingly, and the few short hours before dark passed rapidly.

Enjoy Mulligan Stew. The evening meal, consisting of good old "mulligan stew" was greatly enjoyed by the boys, whose appetites were whetted by the camp work and the keen mountain air. After the dinner the boys went into the social hall and wrestled, played indoor games, and then went out of doors to play group games. Later they went to bed, but not to sleep. As it was only a one-night camp, discipline was not very stringent.

The boys managed to get to sleep by 12 o'clock, but got up at 3:30 in the morning to stage an Indian war dance on the porch of the social hall for the benefit of the "Y" secretary, R. R. Miller.

Hikes and "eats" were features of the program during the morning. Yesterday, twenty-four boys from Orange and northern Orange county were in camp, arriving late in the afternoon. About twenty-seven older boys and leaders were in the camp today.

GOV. STEPHENS IN PLEA TO MCCARTHY TO LEAD COASTERS

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 30.—"Baseball needs you and all California wants you," Governor William D. Stephens today wrote William McCarthy in a letter urging him to reconsider his decision to refuse the presidency of the Coast League.

At the request of Lewis Moring, owner of the Sacramento club, Stephens wrote McCarthy.

In the same mail goes a letter signed by Charles Virden, president of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, and Charles Bliss, president of the city commission.

"As supporters and lovers of baseball, we ask you in the interests of the great American game to accept the presidency of the Pacific Coast league to which you have been elected," the letter sent by Bliss and Virden said.

Football Players ARE GIVEN DINNER. Santa Ana high school's football team and its coach, Martin Morrison, scored heavily last night. It scored upon a bountiful supply of as finely prepared food as husky young men ever awaited signals for.

Jack Remsburg, a member of the team, was host, and the dinner was served at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Remsburg, Bush street. A guest at the dinner was Walter A. Powell, football coach at Stanford university. Present with the boys was Jack's father, Frank Remsburg, an old-time football player. He played on his high school team at Wittenberg, O., and later at Ohio university at Athens, O., which team he coached successfully.

The twenty-six football men were seated about one large table decorated in red and white, the high school colors. Following the dinner, Frank Remsburg called upon various members of the team and the coach to respond to toasts.

Coach Morrison urged all of the boys to continue in school life by attending college after their work at Santa Ana's educational institutions is done. He urged the boys to select a college not alone for its athletic reputation, but also for its academic position. He pointed out that they are still young in years and are in a period of preparation for lives of good citizenship.

Thanks Host, Hostess. Captain Brown for the team thanked Mr. and Mrs. Remsburg for their hospitality, and urged the boys to follow the advice given by the coach.

Coach Powell emphasized the points brought out by Coach Morrison. "Select a college or university of which you can be proud," he said, "and go to it with the determination to get the most possible out of the years you spend there."

Powell's statements concerning the coming game between the University of Ohio and the University of California were interesting. He said the University of Ohio team is out here on a business trip, and would fight hard. He declared the University of California team to be a wonderful team with a fine chance of defeating the Easterners.

One of the most enthusiastic football men present was Jack's father, who is a regular attendant at games and practices and who is known by all of the boys as "Dad." Present at the table were Coach Morrison, Coach Powell, Clarence Brown, Harry Le Bard, Everett Best, Elliott Best, Sam Miller, Jeff Cravath, Ernest Saunby, Lynn Crawford, Earl Jabbs, Willard Stafford, Newton Stark, Joe Smith, Ted Coffman, Elwyn Wilcox, Don Williams, Joe Peterson, Tevis Westgate, Harold Knight, Wayne Clark, Bob Cook, Jack Remsburg and Bill Cole.

TRUCK KILLS CHILD; MOB MENACES DRIVER

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Antonio Prani was seized by a crowd of several hundred persons in the Italian quarter here and threatened with lynching after the coal truck he was driving ran down and killed a girl's home, according to reports made to the police. Prani escaped from the crowd and is being sought by the police.

LITTLE TOT IN WOE OVER LOSS OF RAG DOLL

Little Bobbie Mize has lost his brand new Christmas rag doll, and there is going to be no peace in the Mize family until that rag doll is found.

To Little Bobbie, aged 16 months, there is nothing in life right now of greater importance than getting a clutch of his chubby fingers upon the doll that Santa Claus brought him.

Robert Mize, Sr., and Mrs. Mize have exerted the usual methods of pacification without success. No other of his Christmas toys makes a dent in Little Bobbie's woe. Candy has no appeal—and when candy won't help a little tot out of a slough of despair, a frenzied parent in truth is "up against it."

Firm in the belief that that precious wayward rag doll is still in existence, Father Bob has put an ad in The Register. It reads:

"LOST.—Between Fourth and Halesworth, baby's rag doll. Notify 412 Halesworth."

This little human interest story has found its way into print through the classified advertising columns of The Register.

Many interesting items in those columns readers find many an interesting item. This particular "lost ad" is but one of a number that appeared in Santa Ana yesterday. Evidently there is quite an epidemic of losing. Bobbie Mize may have caught it.

Lost articles advertised in the Register last night include enough articles to make a show in a window, only one of the exhibits might kick out the glass. Here are some of the things lost:

A small suit case; one bay horse with a large left hind ankle; one pocketbook containing $21; one gold crescent pin with a gold pansy and diamond; one string of amber beads; one pocket knife; one envelope containing checks; seven yards of bluish imitation leather. The man or woman who lost the suit case will doubtless get it back today, for in the same column with the "lost ad" appears a "found ad," showing that the suit case has been found. But there is no "found ad" for Bobbie's rag doll.

MURDERER, BURGLAR ESCAPE S. F. JAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Rolph Martin, charged with the murder of Edward Nellar, a Greek, and Albert Stewart, known as the "burglar with big feet," escaped from the city jail today.

The men were put in an iron cage in the felony wing of the jail as their cells were being cleaned out. The officer on guard was called away. In some manner the men got hold of a heavy timber and pried the lock off the door.

They went down a spiral stair case in the wing of the identification bureau, and out the identification bureau door.

They made their way to the street undetected.

All police in the city were ordered to be on the lookout for the pair. Martin was brought back from Atlantic City, N. J., recently by Detective Captain Matheson and Sergeant Arthur McQuaid. He is alleged to have killed Nellar in a hotel on Post street. Stewart was awaiting trial on two charges of burglary.

FRESNO WOMAN WINS $3000 HEART BALM

FRESNO, Dec. 30.—In her breach of promise suit against Alex Auzillotti, said to be a fruit salesman from Los Angeles, Maud Miller was awarded $3000 heart balm in Judge D. A. Cashin's department of the superior court here on default of the defendant. In her complaint the woman states that Auzillotti wooed and won her when she was living in Portland, Ore. She later moved to Fresno, and exhibited letters addressed to Mrs. Auzillotti.

Gerrard Brothers Entertain
A happy party gathered at the home of H. A. Gerrard, 807 Cypress avenue on the evening of December 29th. All employees of both Gerrard Bros. stores were invited with their wives and husbands and upon arrival were directed to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with pepper boughs and holly. The dining table was decked with holly and poinsettias and a delicious three course dinner was served.

Including the host and hostess there were twenty-four gathered around the table.

After doing justice to the feast of good things, H. A. Gerrard ably took the part of toastmaster and two-minute talks on timely topics were given by a number of employees.

A. W. Gerrard spoke on "Co-operation." His talk was to the point and greatly enjoyed. Mrs. H. A. Gerrard gave a humorous reading from Mark Twain. After dinner the party enjoyed music, songs and games.

Everyone present voted that the evening couldn't have been more enjoyable and that Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gerrard were royal hosts and entertainers.

Family Christmas Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stevens entertained members of their family at a delightful Christmas dinner and tree at their home, 510 South Cypress street, Sunday.

The beautifully trimmed tree was the center of interest for the young members of the party.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Blanchard and two children, Jeanette and Judson, of Burbank; and the Rev. and Mrs. Paul G. Stevens, and their son, of Pasadena.

Newlyweds at Rossmore.
Anyone who would like a nice rice pudding free might apply to Manager Loveridge, of the New Rossmore hotel, and get the "makin's." He is still picking up rice, and more rice, which was extravagantly raised upon Mr. and Mrs. Brown S. McPherson, who were married yesterday afternoon in the Episcopal church at Orange, and who are now guests at the hotel.

Mrs. McPherson was Miss Florence Virginia Reavis of Orange. She was for several years assistant to the city clerk of Orange and for the past year had been city light and water collector there. Mr. McPherson is a resident of Inglewood, and it is there that he and his bride will make their home.

Chandlers Give Dinner

ALWAYS SOME ONE'S SINGING.

Always some one's singing turns the clouds of darkness by;
Always some one's singing brings the sunbeams to the sky;
Always some one's singing helps the spirit to forget
The worry and the scurry and the fussing and the fret.

Always some one's singing—yet we hesitate to sing,
Always some one's singing—yet we will not let it ring.
Always someone's singing keeps the world in tune with truth
And the beauty of the morning on the rosy hills of youth.

Always some one's singing clears the storm that o'er us bends;
Always some one's singing makes the world a world of friends.
Always some one's singing starts an echo of life's glees,
Till its music brings salvation to the heart of you and me

EUROPE POSTAL RATES WILL BE ADVANCED

MADRID, Dec. 29.—The slogan of European delegates to the Postal congress held here appeared to be, "we want revenue," while that of the delegates both from the United States and Latin America was clearly "we seek to exchange public service."

The discussions all through the long committee stages of the congress were tinged with these opposite ideas and led to the formation of two solid blocks among the delegates—the Western hemisphere against the Eastern. Friendly feeling was not lost at any time, but the determination of the hard-stricken Europeans was backed by their voting power and the new convention of Madrid contains the authorization to raise the postal rates.

The shortened workday has made the output of factories in England show a considerable increase.

It has long been approved by the Good Housekeeping Institute, endorsed for years by legions of users, guaranteed by old, large and successful makers.

—If the A-B-C Electric Laundress washed merely by lifting and dipping the soiled fabrics in sudsy water, it would be a good washer. If it merely rocked and tossed the fabrics it would be a good washer. ## KIWANIANS SHOW INTEREST IN PROPOSED CHARTER FOR CITY

At the regular Kimanis luncheon yesterday a committee of three—Major M. B. Wellington, S. J. Cornell, and Freeman H. Bloodgood—was appointed to study and investigate the proposed city charter and to report at the next meeting of the club next Wednesday, with recommendations as to what attitude the club should assume toward the adoption of the charter.

This action was taken on motion of J. P. Baumgartner, who, at the request of the board of freeholders, of which he is a member, presented the charter matter to the club. Baumgartner said that the board of freeholders had conceived it to be their duty at least to direct a campaign of education and information on the charter—not with any feeling of pride of patriotism or with any desire to ram the charter down the throats of the people of the city, but to make it possible for the voters to act intelligently on the day of election, Feb. 21, 1921.

He pointed out that the initiation of the charter movement came from the present city trustees, who, in their attempt to carry on the business of the city, found themselves constantly hindered, hampered and restricted by the state law governing cities of the sixth class, under which Santa Ana now operates.

Law Passed Years Ago He said that law was passed many years ago to fit the cities of the state of from 1500 to 5000 population, and that of course it does not fit cities of 16,000 population, which must plan for and be governed by the conditions which will prevail in cities of 20,000 to 30,000 population.

The speaker at yesterday's luncheon was J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, and his subject was "Co-operation of Organizations for Civic Betterment." Metzgar pointed out the tremendous advantage of thorough and enthusiastic co-operation on the part of civic organizations in any undertaking for civic betterment. He said that every such organization had its distinct and individual influences and elements of leadership, and that when all worked together the utmost strength of community leadership was brought to bear upon the undertaking in hand.

Pays High Tribute In closing his remarks, Metzgar paid a high tribute to the life and work of the late John A. McFadden. He said he had been in close personal touch with Mr. McFadden in the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants & Manufacturers association, war work and other lines of endeavor which called into play the highest ideals of manhood and the utmost sacrifice of personal interest on the altar of public spirit and community service, and that in all such work Mr. McFadden had always been in the front ranks if not in actual and efficient leadership.

Following Metzgar's talk, the Rev. John Oliver, pastor of the First Methodist church, said he had known John McFadden's father better than he had known the son, but that he had known the young man well enough to appreciate his splendid qualities of personality and character. He presented the thought that it is a glorious thing in family life and in community life that succeeding generations shall embody the noble qualities of their forbears and exemplify them in their lives as did John A. McFadden.

To Draft Resolution On motion of T. A. Winbigger, a committee of three, consisting of Mr. Winbigger, the Rev. John Oliver and J. P. Baumgartner, was appointed to draft a resolution, expressing to the family of Mr. McFadden the sympathy of the Kiwanis Club and voicing the high appreciation in which he was held as a citizen and the sense of community loss felt in his death.

The election of officers of the Kiwanis club resulted in the re-election of the entire list of present officers, as follows: O. A. Haley, president; E. T. Ma-teer, vice-president; Walter W. Bid-dick, secretary; M. B. Wellington, treasurer; directors, J. S. Hill, J. C. Horton, J. E. Gowen, F. C. Blauer, Charles Spicer, F. P. Nickey, J. P. Baumgartner; district trustee, Freeman H. Bloodgood.

This action was taken on the recommendation of the nominating committee, which gave as the reason for its recommendation, that the Kiwanis Club is not yet fully organized, not having received its charter, and the present officers having served but a few months.

J. E. Gowen Presides J. E. Gowen presided at yesterday's meeting and Maurice Phillips, who was present as a guest, favored the club with some fine solo singing.

The Rev. John Oliver extended an invitation to the members of the club to attend services at the First Methodist church Sunday night, and bring with them their best girls—wives, mothers, sisters, sweethearts. The invitation was accepted with pleasure, and with the understanding

Southern California

ONTARIO—Plans for the purchase of the Free Methodist church on Riverside drive, south of town, by the Ontario Post, American Legion, and its removal to a site in Ontario and remodeling as a clubroom were dropped when it was figured the cost of moving and remodeling would be prohibitive. A committee consisting of A. L. Peterson, head of the local post; C. C. Peabody, Harold Caldwell and Frank Woods investigated. The committee decided to meet with local merchants and discuss plans for a permanent home.

LONG BEACH—The body of Murdie Woodard, who was killed in France during the war, reached this city today and funeral services will be held next week under American Legion auspices. Woodard was the son of Mrs. Maud Johnson, 636 East Fourth street. His is the second overseas war victim's body brought here for interment. That of Walter L. Wickham reached Long Beach a few months ago.

BURBANK—The Burbank Canning company has contracted for 200 tons of pumpkins and advertised for 300 tons more to be used in making pumpkin flour. This process of putting up pumpkins is declared the best and cheapest way of handling this product. It is not only easier to handle and manufacture, but it is said to be superior to fresh pumpkin in making pies.

REDDLANDS—Yucaipa residents have the oil fever as a result of oil that persists in coming out in the well being drilled on the Clyde ranch for water. The ranchers are discussing the organization of a company to start drilling. Several have taken their ranches off the market, and are refusing to give options.

POMONA—Pomona has another case of the meanest thief. While Mrs. J. M. Booth was attending the funeral of her son, W. Earl Booth, well known local merchant, a robber ransacked the place from top to bottom and took $15 in cash.

RIVERSIDE—In order to be ready for the army of Eastern criminals said to be on their way West, the Riverside City Council has instructed City of Police Elmer Diers to add two patrolmen to the local department. By increasing the number of patrolmen it will be possible better to protect the outlying sections of the city and to keep a closer watch on railroad yards.

LONG BEACH—The fifty-seventh anniversary of their wedding was celebrated in this city by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Brockman at their home, 2920 East Fourth street. Mr. Brockman is 82 years of age and his wife two years younger. Both are enjoying good health.

REDLANDS—Christmas offering for European Chinese relief by five Redlands churches totaled approximately $4000 according to the chairman of the drive. This does not represent the total of five bodies, for it includes only special locality gifts in some of them. Other churches will add materially to the grand total.

SAN DIEGO—San Diego county supervisors have appropriated the sum of $1500 toward the cost of installing an elaborate display at the Eleventh National Orange Show at San Bernardino by the fruit interests of that county.

ONTARIO—Rev. Richard H. Gushee, rector of Christ Episcopal church, was completely and happily surprised when between 50 and 75 members of his parish assembled at the rectory, 232 North Euclid avenue, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his rectorship here, to offer congratulations and to present him with a handsome gift in token of their love and esteem.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Men have been "pinched" for using a telescope on bathing scenes. Naked eyes have been blacked for intrusions and murder has been done for "telling."

But now the microscope has been employed to reveal bare facts and figures. Moreover, government investigators announce they will distribute their findings in a "movie."

Some poor insects too insignificant for ordinary attention were the victims. The pool was a dewdrop and the bathers, creatures too small for the naked eye. The film, called "A Plant Disease and How It Spreads," shows organisms creating rhubarb blight, a source of heavy loss to gardeners. It will be distributed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

SECOND OPERATION ON SOLON POSTPONED WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Because of an unfavorable turn in the condition of Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, who had an operation performed last week, a second operation planned for today was postponed.

A sudden and unexpected rise in the Senator's temperature occurred last night, but it was somewhat reduced today.

CHRISTMAS TREE AT MEXICAN MISSION

EL MODENA, Dec. 30.—Christmas exercises were held at the Mexican mission. A tree with a program of good singing formed the principal part of the entertainment.

The Cristos motored to Long Beach Sunday afternoon, and took a well filled box of delicacies to Mr. Crist's sister, Mrs. J. B. Palmer, who has been sick with the grippe, and has not been able to attend the festivities at the Crist home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bolton and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dixon of Los Angeles, visited at the home of Mr. Bolton's mother, at Whittier, Sunday morning. The Dixons ate their Christmas dinner there.

The Hudson family entertained friends and relatives from Long Beach, Christmas day.

The R. Mason family held a jolly reunion at their home Christmas day. They said it was the most enjoyable Christmas they had spent in many years.

Miss Elsie Crist arrived home, Friday evening, from her school duties at Ojai. She has one week of vacation as they do not have institutes to attend as in this section.

Miss Orpha Christ, who is home from Berkeley, plans to return January 10.

Richey Barnett is home from Berkeley for a three weeks vacation. He is enjoying his college work.

The Christmas program at the church, Thursday night, was very interesting. The tree, lighted by electricity, was very much in contrast to those of former years, when it was necessary to watch breathlessly in fear that the candles would set fire to the tree. The program was planned by Mrs. B. M. Culter. Everyone was given a bag of candy. The church was trimmed with holly.

The Hamiltons spent Christmas at their mountain home at Arden.

Candy making was a common form of labor in many homes here, last week.

Early Christmas morning the residents of El Modena were awakened by the sweet voices of the carolers.

Rene White and family are visiting in the northern part of the state with friends and relatives.

School will open here next Monday with Miss Mable Cooke in her old place again, after an absence of more than one year, which was necessary as the result of a serious operation and an attack of the flu.

The "Live Wire" class are planning to hold a Watch party, New Year's eve.

PROHIBITION OFFICERS FIRED
NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Dismissal of forty-seven federal prohibition enforcement agents from the staff of the supervising enforcement agent in New York the last two weeks, including the dismissal of twenty yesterday, was reported.

ENJOY MERRY PARTY AT SELOVER HOME

YORBA LINDA, Dec. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Selover delightfully entertained a coterie of friends at their ranch home, recently, in honor of Mr. Burt Miller, brother of Mrs. Selover. The guests were entertained with a theater party, and upon their return to the Selover home several games of 500 were enjoyed. The games were followed by delicious refreshments served by the hostess.

The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shook, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Buckmaster, Mr. Chauncey Eichler and Miss Edith Bemis.

Gene French and family of Whittier were calling on relatives in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. McDavid and family spent Christmas day with relatives in Los Angeles. Miss Eleanor, Mrs. McDavid's niece, returned to Yorba Linda with them, to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt Morris motored to Los Angeles on Sunday to visit the former's parents. Mr. Morris Sr. has been suffering with a severe attack of hiccoughs, which has lasted almost a week. The case stubbornly refuses to give in to medical treatment. Mr. Morris' friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Carrie Guthrie and son Donald, were among the Long Beach visitors from Yorba Linda on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Welch entertained Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Young, of Los Angeles, over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Amstutz were guests at the Ralph Shook home, for a Christmas dinner.

Miss Esther Morris delightfully entertained with a Christmas Eve party for the youngsters of the neighborhood. The children spent the evening with games and stories around the Christmas tree. In the latter part of the evening they enjoyed a visit from Santa Claus, who was making his rounds under the auspices of the Friends Sunday school. He left a treat for each child and departed for the homes of other children.

The children who enjoyed Miss Morris' hospitality were: Misses Winifred Selover, Margaret and Helen Fassel, Doris Inglesby, Gladys Hobson, Katherine Shook and Margaret Marsh, and Messrs. Junior Selover and Jack Miller and the hostess' small brothers, Homer and Carl Morris.

Miss Marjorie Doane of Los Angeles was a recent visitor at the Howard Brown home.

Work has been resumed at the Trydte and Marshburn wells on the G. P. lease, both of which have been busy for a week on fishing jobs.

Mrs. E. J. Herbert has as her house guest, her mother, who recently arrived from Ohio.

Little Miss Genevieve Townsend, who has been suffering with an attack of scarlet fever, is recovering.

Little Miss Jessie Lupton was taken to the Anaheim Hospital Thursday with a serious case of acidity. She is somewhat better at the present time.

Miss Hallie Allee and her brothers, Clifford and Ralph, went to Canby, Kern county, for the holidays. They were accompanied to their home by Miss Van Winkle of Huntington Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson left on Thursday for Lemon Cove, to spend the holidays with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nicholson.

Wayne Mabry is spending a fortnight with his aunt, Mrs. Neuswander.

Mrs. Worley, of San Bernardino, mother of Mrs. Hilda Paul, spent Christmas in Yorba Linda.

Miss Olive Walton and her mother of Los Angeles were looking up old friends in town, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Sparks are entertaining Mrs. Bennett and children of Los Angeles, for a few days. The entire party spent the Christmas holidays at Forest Home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Paine spent Christmas with relatives in Los Angeles.

The Methodist Sunday school held a very entertaining Christmas program on Wednesday evening in Ley Hall. The program was followed by a visit from Santa Claus to the children.

The Christmas program of the Friends church, was given on Thursday evening before an audience which filled the church to capacity.

The first part of the exercises were devoted to the little folks, who played their parts with a joyous simplicity that was most captivating. The second part was given by the members of the Baraca-Philthea class, who portrayed "The Birth of Christ." The scenes were exceptionally well planned and acted out and the beautiful story was made most impressive. The costuming was especially worthy of mention as was the work of all those taking part.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone are expecting to move to Texas about the first of the year. Mr. Stone has been head of the picking gang for the Yorba Linda Citrus association for several years.

Mrs. V. C. Dillingham is entertaining her nephew, Mr. Weaver, of Wisconsin.

NICARAGUA GETS NEW PRESIDENT JANUARY 1

PANAMA, Dec. 30.—The Nicaraguan legation at Panama gave out a message from the Managua foreign office stating the National Congress had declared Diego Manuel Chamorro and Bartolo Martinez constitutionally elected president and vice president, respectively, of Nicaragua. The new executives are to take office January 1.

Announcement was made at Managua recently that supporters of Jose Andres Urtecho, former minister of foreign relations, who was defeated in the presidential election by General Chamorro, had appealed to the state department at Washington to take some action regarding the election, asserting that flagrant frauds were committed. They were said to be supported by many influential members of the conservative party.

INDIA PRODUCES MOST FAMOUS SCENTED WOOD

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Sandalwood is the production principally of the native state of Mysore, India, and the district of Coorg, in both of which places the industry is almost a monopoly of the government forest reserves, says the Express. Due to the development of the sandalwood oil extracting industry, states Consul Dawson of Madras in Daily Commerce Reports, the exportation of the wood has steadily declined, while that of the oil has increased.

Sandalwood is the most famous of all scented woods. Its use for perfumery and incense dates back thousands of years. The later Greeks considered it one of their greatest luxuries, and no festivities were complete without it. Sandalwood figures prominently in religious ceremonies and burial rites in China and other Oriental countries.

OF WINTER IN CANADA

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—In his latest book, "Letters of Travel" (Doubleday, Page & Co.), the great word artist gives this graphic picture of a winter landscape in Canada:

"Rain makes a granulated crust over all, in which white shagreen the trees are faintly reflected. Heavy mists go up and down and create a sort of mirage, till they settle and pack round the iron-tipped hills, and then you know how the moon must look to an inhabitant of it. At twilight, again, the beaten down ridges and laps and folds of the uplands take on the likeness of the wet sand—some huge and melancholy beach at the world's end—and when day meets night it is all goblin country. To westward, the last of the spent day—rust red and pearl, illuminate levels of shore waiting for the tide to turn again. To eastward, black night among the valleys, and on the rounded hill slopes a hard glaze that is not so much light as snail slime from the moon."

DECIDE ON RATE TO SUGGEST ON LEMON TARIFF

With a committee of the Citrus Protective league meeting in Los Angeles yesterday reaching an agreement as to the rate of tariff on lemons that in its opinion should be incorporated in the proposed tariff bill when adopted by congress, preparations were being made today for calling a meeting of the league within a few days to receive the report of the committee. The tariff rate which the committee agreed upon was not made public.

The league, at its meeting, will appoint a committee to go to Washington and present the lemon situation to the congressional committee on ways and means.

The lemon hearing is scheduled for January 21 to 24, with the California lemon growers dated for January 21. The committee will be given one and one-half hours to present arguments in favor of the rate which the league will suggest.

May Name Teague. It is expected that C. C. Teague, president of the California Fruit Growers' exchange, and G. Harold Powell, general manager, will be selected as the committee to appear before the ways and means committee.

The committee which met yesterday is composed of about twenty-five lemon growers appointed by the Citrus Protective league to discuss and determine the rate of tariff that should be asked for in the proposed tariff bill.

The growers are dissatisfied with the rate of one and one-fourth cents per pound provided in the emergency tariff bill, and it is said that the rate agreed to by the committee is considerably in excess of this amount.

Dispatches from Washington today stated that revision of the new lemon rates in the emergency tariff bill as it passed the house will be asked of the senate finance committee when it begins consideration of the measure.

SPANISH WARSHIP VISITS N. Y. TO RENEW FRIENDSHIP

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—For the first time since the Spanish-American war a battleship of the Spanish navy is a visitor to the port of New York. The mission of the Alfonso XII, which bears the name of Spain's popular young monarch, should add to the friendship between the United States and the country whose history is so closely interwoven with the pioneer development of our continent.

This modern dreadnaught is typical of the new Spain that has arisen from the temporary depression caused by the loss of its colonial empire.

The preserving spirit of the old conquistadores still lives in their modern descendants. It has made possible the return to economic prosperity and increased moral influence which Spain enjoys today.

The Spanish visitors will not feel themselves strangers in New York. Here they will find a large number of representatives of their race. They will hear their language spoken on all sides. An interesting program has been arranged for them by the various Spanish speaking associations.

Unable to Compete. California lemon growers are protesting the rate of one and one-fourth cents, maintaining the low rate of exchange makes it impossible for them to compete in Eastern markets with foreign producers. They declare that with the high premium on the American dollar, it will buy more lemons in Italy than it will in this country.

According to the dispatches, Representative Osborne of California recently introduced a bill providing for a duty of 2½ cents a pound on lemons. This bill was passed by the house and is now in the senate. Before the house ways and means committee Osborne also asked that this rate be written into the emergency tariff legislation, but the committee consented only to the one and one-fourth cents rate.

Osborne said that urgent representations will be made to the senate finance committee by members of the California delegation for consideration of the matter and the retention of the rate originally proposed.

MAGNATES ASK HUGE SUMS FOR PLAYERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Baseball flesh on the hoof is getting into the platinum class.

Last winter when Babe Ruth sold for $150,000 the market price reached the crest at $731 a pound.

But this winter that peak price is almost sausage class compared with the choice flesh that is running from $955 to $1,311 per pound. Leaders on today's bidding are: Roger Hornsby, $1,311 per pound; Walter Maranville, $1,000 per pound; Heinie Groh, $955 per pound.

The brokers who have cornered these prize stocks are holding out for still higher quotations.

The Rip Van Winkles who were blown out of their sleep last winter by the price that Babe Ruth drew, must have been knocked into a perpetual snore last night when the St. Louis Cardinals turned down an offer aggregating $250,000 for Roger Hornsby.

"Five players and $200,000" the Giants tempted.

"Throw in Frisch and we'll consider it," Sam Bredson answered.

Smelling salts were needed around the Giants' lair when they considered Frisch's market price of $50,000.

Heinie Groh is sticking around Cincinnati because the pressure of $150,000 iron men cannot pry him off Garry Herman's roster.

The loud voice of $150,000 also is failing to work the hearing organs of George Washington Grant for Nabbitt Maranville.

Considering these prices the millions of Charles Comiskey will not be worth coin with the czar's face on it when it comes to building up a White Sox machine.

'KING OF HEAVEN AND EARTH' NABBED

DENVER, Dec. 30.—Joshua Sykes, self-styled King of Heaven and Earth, and leader of the sect of the House of David, was arrested here on a charge of operating a confidence game.

The warrant on which Sykes was arrested charges that he defrauded Ernest Lampert, a former member of his flock, out of $150 by prophesying the end of the earth. Lampert was persuaded, the information alleges, that he would have no further use for his worldly goods and he gave his last dollar to Sykes.

The information also mentions the name of Anna Spyker, who it is alleged was fleeced out of $1000 in California a year ago by the same means.

Lampert alleges he turned over the money to Sykes on September 15, 1920. He names five witnesses to substantiate his charges.

Sykes spent three hours at police headquarters before bond was provided for him.

THIEVES MAKE RAID ON GLENDALE HOME

GLENDALE, Dec. 30.—When Frank L. Fox of 345 North Kenwood street and his family returned from a week-end visit they found their house had been ransacked from garret to cellar. Several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry, silverware, table linen and clothing, and practically everything of value that could be carried away had been taken. This is the second robbery in the same neighborhood in the past few days.

WEALTHY TEXAN DIES

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 30.—Col. George W. Brackenridge, said to be one of the richest men in Texas, died here suddenly of heart failure. He was a native of Indiana and came to Texas in 1886. He was a retired banker and principal owner of the San Antonio Express.

FUNERAL RITES ARE HELD FOR J. A. M'FADDEN

Mid beautiful flowers, the funeral services for John A. McFadden, insurance man and one of the county's best known citizens, were held yesterday afternoon at Smith & Tuttle's chapel, and mid beautiful flowers his body was laid to rest in Fairhaven cemetery. The chapel was filled to overflowing with people from Santa Ana and other points in the county.

The services were simple, impressive. Relatives who loved him and friends whose affections, too, were boundless for him gathered in the chapel. A profusion of flowers bespoke the high regard with which John McFadden was held in this community.

Floral pieces from the Rotary club, the Elks and the Chamber of Commerce were particularly beautiful. The Rotary club's floral tribute represented the club's emblem.

Members of the Rotary club, of which Mr. McFadden was an active member, attended in a body.

Pays High Tribute. Following music upon the organ by Clarence A. Gustin, the Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, "for those present," as he put it, paid a high tribute to the life of John McFadden, pointing out not the things worth while he had accomplished, which were many, but the man he was, his integrity, his character, the things he stood for as a man, the man he was that made people love him. The Rev. Stevenson spoke as one who knew John McFadden well.

"His life was an open book," said the Rev. Stevenson.

The address so fully fitted into the conception of John McFadden held by his friends that in their minds it ranks as the most beautiful and the most impressive funeral address ever heard by them.

Bearers of the casket were William H. Spurgeon, Edward McWilliams, Harry L. Hanson, Mark A. Lacy, Leonard G. Swales and Mac O. Robbins. Honorary pallbearers were D. Eymann Huff, Alex Brownridge, Dr. J. I. Clark, J. C. Metzgar, Charles S. Kelley and T. E. Stephenson.

As marks of respect for John McFadden, flags on public and business buildings flew at half-mast yesterday. The doors of members of the Santa Ana Insurance club, of which Mr. McFadden was president, and of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, of which he was an ex-president, were closed during the funeral.

John McFadden was 43 years of age, born in Santa Ana, and a member of the pioneer family of McFaddens who have been closely identified with the development of Orange county since the late sixties.

THREE MEN ACCUSED OF $5000 ROBBERY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—Charged with the theft of about $5000 worth of merchandise from the firm with which they were employed, D. R. Drake, an electrician, George Prenzler, a night watchman, and W. C. Lloyd, a photographer, were arrested at their homes by Detective Sergeants Finlayson and Slaughter and locked up at the city jail.

EXPLOSION IS FATAL TO SAN PEDRO WOMAN

SAN PEDRO, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Florence E. Sandstrom, 43, was burned to death when sparks from an electric iron ignited escaping gas from the kitchen stove, causing an explosion. The house was badly damaged by fire.

YOUNG LIGHTWEIGHT NOW UNDER WING OF DEMPSEY'S MANAGER

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Jack Dempsey today was sharing the attentions of Jack Kearns, his manager, with Joe Benjamin, lightweight. Kearns announced that he had assumed the management of Benjamin and intended to leave him on this coast for fights in Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane during the next three months and then hoped to get him a bout with Benny Leonard.

Kearns and Benjamin today were en route to Tia Juana to spend New Year's.

BARRY'S RING WORK SURPRISES CRITICS

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 30.—Jim Barry, of Petaluma, Cal., surprised fight fans here last night by sticking ten rounds against his heavier opponent, Sam Langford.

The Californian made a hit for the cheerful way he received punishment—and he got it aplenty. Langford was given the decision.

Jimmy Darcy of Portland forced his fight against Joe Eagan of Boston, but the latter proved more elevator. A draw verdict was returned after ten rounds.

Tiny Herman was awarded a decision after ten rounds of milling against Farmer Lodge, a Minneapolis heavy, who didn't show much except weight.

Tex Vernon and Baby Blue went six rounds to a draw, as did Sammy Gordon and Ray Rose.

25-ACRE ORANGE GROVE CHANGES OWNERSHIP AT $100,000

Fred Koese and Gustave Hedstrom of Anaheim Purchase Property

FULL BEARING ORCHARD
$60,000 Imperial Valley Alfalfa Ranch Taken As Part Payment

That values on good valencia groves in the vicinity of Orange are not slipping is indicated by the sale this week of a twenty-five-acre grove, situated on the highway between Orange and Olive, for $100,000.

Nels T. Edwards, of Orange, capitalist, member of the county board of supervisors and former county clerk, and A. C. Fletcher were the owners of the grove. They are passing title to Fred Koese and Gustave Hedstrom, both of Anaheim.

The grove is full bearing and is said to be a first class piece of producing property. Edwards and Fletcher have owned the ranch for some time.

A 200-acre ranch in the Imperial Valley, valued at $60,000, was taken by Edwards and Fletcher as part payment on the orange acreage. The Imperial ranch is planted to alfalfa.

Guy G. Richards, real estate agent of Orange, negotiated the big deal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The American Red Cross announced an additional appropriation of $20,000 for use in the fight against the epidemic of typhoid fever in Salem, O., where, during the past three months nearly one-tenth of the city's population of the 9500 has been stricken with the disease.

The society previously has appropriated $50,000 to fight the epidemic.

20 Per Cent Reduction In Wages of Loggers and Lumbermen Reported

Wages have begun to tumble in lumber camps of the Northwest, according to statements received here.

A new minimum wage scale has just been accepted by the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen at Portland, Ore., for sawmill and logging operations. The Loyal Legion is strong in the lumber sections of the Northwest and action of the organization in accepting reduced wage schedules probably will have the effect of forcing a decline in prices all along the line.

The cut amounts to about 20 per cent, it was said.

PLAN NEW BUSINESS BLOCK IN ANAHEIM

ANAHEIM, Dec. 30.—F. C. Eisenhauer, proprietor of the Anaheim pharmacy, announced he planned to construct an 80-foot business and apartment-house block at the southwest corner of Center and Clementine streets. Construction will start early in the new year.

Eisenhauer recently purchased 30 feet at the corner from A. B. McCord, cashier of the Anaheim National bank, at a price reported to be $300 per foot. A deal for the 50 feet next to the west is in escrow.

The building will be a brick and correspond in style of architecture with other recent additions west of Lemon street. Mr. Eisenhauer stated, adding:

"While my plans are not yet far enough along to be definite, I will make it a substantial structure and a credit to the street. The ground floor will be divided into either three or four store rooms. The building will be either two or three floors, with apartments upstairs."

The old house which has stood on the corner has been moved to a residence lot on Chestnut street near Fremont school and is being entirely renovated. The finishing work will be done this week when it will be for sale. Eisenhauer stated.

LONG BEACH BANDITS STAGE TWO HOLDUPS

LONG BEACH, Dec. 30.—Two hold-ups and several daylight robberies have convinced the police of this city that Long Beach is the latest victim of the crime wave. J. F. Caldwell, 765 Sunrise boulevard, a missionary, was held up near Burnett station by an automobile bandit with no loss. The waste of time, however, was made up by the bandit, who later visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wightman and carried away jewelry and clothing valued at $900. A visit to the rooms of H. Hirayama, a grocer, believed to have been made by the same burglar, cost the Japanese a watch.

LANDLORD GIVES VIEWS ON RENT PROFITEERING

Says High Prices Should Not Be Charged for 2nd Class Houses

"A good deal has been said about rent profiteers lately, and an excellent article was recently published in the Register regarding the per cent of profit which is considered legitimate on rents," a Santa Ana landlord who owns a number of apartments here, said today.

"Several articles have been published from various sources to the effect that there is little profiteering here, and I believe that this is true. I have talked lately with several people who rent property, and, like myself, they are not making even the 15 per cent gross profit, which permits a 7 per cent net yield, on their property."

"I do not know whether in the long run it is good business to rent at rates well below the market, but personally I do not want to crowd the last penny out of my rents, or to keep raising them or have to reduce them with every flurry and change of rent prices."

Feel Same Way

"I know a number of other landlords feel the same way about it. If they have good tenants who keep the property up, and who are permanent, they would rather rent well below the market than to feel that they are profiteering, or were boosting profits when wages in general are stationary, and in many cases are dropping slightly."

"I have, for example, a number of apartments. They are all rented, and have been rented for some time to good tenants. These apartments have a bedroom, a living room with a disappearing bed, bathroom, and kitchen, a large screen porch equipped for laundering purposes, and each apartment has a garage."

"These apartments are practically new and modern. I was getting $35 a good while back, and recently I raised the rents to $40 because of the increased costs."

Others Get Higher Rent

"Now as a matter of fact apartments here which are old, and are neither particularly well located or equipped, apartments which are no larger, and in many cases are smaller than these, are renting for from $50 to $65 right here in Santa Ana."

"Apartments similar to these in Los Angeles rent for from $65 to $85 per month, and the cost of upkeep and taxes there is not very much greater than here."

"I know there are a number of landlords who are keeping their old tenants at rates about the same as mine. As a matter of fact I have constant applications to rent these apartments of mine for $50 and $55."

"I feel that the people ought to know some of these facts. To my notion those landlords who are profiteering are those who have undesirable apartments for which they are demanding outrageous rents."

BIG INCREASE IN PERMITS HERE FOR BUILDING

Last Half of Year Shows Gain of $504,667 Over First Six Months

That Santa Ana building is rapidly increasing and that the figures showing the amount of this increase are definite indicators of the nature and extent of this growth, was the opinion expressed by City Building Inspector Thomas Ash.

The books of the city building inspector show that only $754,256 of the $2,013,189 total for the year was registered during the first six months. This leaves a balance of $1,258,933 for the last six months. The increase amounts to $504,667.

Five proposed dwellings are included in the nineteen permits issued during the past week.

Big Demand for Homes
In spite of the steady increase in the number of houses built the demand for dwellings continues. Since January 1 there have been 384 new dwellings called for in permits.

A total of $12,935 was the valuation given in permits issued during the past week, bringing the year's total to $2,013,189. To this amount may be added $43,775 for the county garage and sheriff's office and $150,000 for the auditorium and other improvements at the high school. For these structures no permits were required. This brings the complete total to $2,206,964 in 1920.

With the nineteen permits issued during the past week, the total for the year is raised to 976.

This Week's Permits
Permits to build, alter or repair were issued during the past week as follows:

FOREIGN TRADE OF U. S. ON INCREASE

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The foreign trade of the United States makes a new "high record" in 1920. The record of eleven months and the knowledge of what is going on in the foreign trade in the twelfth month justifies, says a statement by The National City Bank of New York, the belief that our foreign trade in the calendar year 1920 will be "the biggest ever" and exceed $15,000,000,000 as against a little less than $12,000,000,000 in 1919, slightly more than $9,000,000,000 in 1918, and $4,259,000,000 in the fiscal year 1914. Exports will apparently cross the $8,000,000,000 line as against $7,920,000,000 in 1919 and $2,365,000,000 in the year preceding the war while imports will exceed $5,000,000,000 as against $3,904,000,000 in 1919 and $1,894,000,000 in the fiscal year 1914.

These increases occur, on the import side, in all of the three great groups—"raw materials for manufacturing," "foodstuffs," and "manufactures." The demand in the first half abroad was very large, and the prices were very high. The value of raw material imported for use in manufacturing will be apparently about $1,750,000,000, an increase of about $250,000,000 over the preceding year. Crude foodstuffs show no material increase, but in the foodstuffs "partly or wholly manufactured" which includes the item of sugar, the total is more than double in value that of 1919. Finished manufactures will show a big advance, standing for the ten months ending with October at $757,000,000 against $366,000,000 in the same months of the preceding year.

On the export side, the striking characteristics are a big gain in the port of manufactures, a material increase in the value of raw material, an increase in wheat and other grains but a big fall off in meats and dairy products.

BRYAN AND NAPOLEONIC CAPE STIR FOLKS IN HARDING'S CITY

The good people of Marion, O., are beginning to be bored by the visits of celebrities. But nobody yawned when Bill Bryan wheeled into town. Bryan's call was of unusual interest in itself—here was the old Democratic standard bearer by invitation. But it was Bryan's Napoleonic cape that interested the Marionites. This picture of Bryan and President-elect Harding was snapped at the corner of the famous front porch. On the left is a secret service man.

PREFERS LIVING IN SUNNY CAL. AFTER TRIP

W. E. Chilson, well known and prosperous rancher, and his wife had dreams last summer of spending this winter in Indiana, Michigan and Ohio.

They left here immediately after the November election to carry out their plans. Today they are back in Santa Ana, more content than ever to make their home here.

They spent most of the time at Fort Wayne and Detroit. Rain, day after day, to say nothing of cold weather, soon changed their ideas about the delights of wintering in the East and they were not long in making up their minds to alter their plans and return to their home in Santa Ana.

At Detroit, Chilson took delivery of a Cadillac roadster ordered through the Cadillac Garage company of this city. He had visions of delightful rides as a means of "getting time." He didn't find paved roads such as California has and his contemplated pleasure trips did not materialize.

After a trial of the roads in the vicinity of Detroit he discovered that auto trips were "tours of grief" instead of "rides of pleasure." He shipped the car to Santa Ana and his wife boarded the train for Santa Ana less than three weeks after arriving in the East.

"Never more will I wander away from Santa Ana, especially at this time," said Chilson, commenting on his Eastern trip. "Santa Ana is the ideal place for a home. I am more satisfied than ever. I had no intention whatever of remaining in the East longer than the winter, but, believe me, I never again will attempt to spend a winter in those states where rain, sleet and snow rule during the winter months."

HINES FINISHES WORK ON GERMAN SHIPPING

PARIS, Dec. 30.—Walker D. Hines, designated by the United States under the Versailles Treaty as the arbitrator in awards of German inland navigation tonnage among the Allied and associated governments in restitution of losses in river shipping during the war, has determined the conditions of the cessation of the German tonnage.

Hines is working with representatives of the reparations commission and the German government. He finds that the Allied losses were somewhat less than 900,000 tons and 30,000 horsepower, or considerably less than the 20 per cent of the river fleet which the treaty permits to be taken from Germany.

Lists of boats and other movable appliances to be ceded will be prepared by representatives of Hines, acting with the advice of representatives of the reparations commission and of the countries concerned.

The lists, before final approval will be subject to objection and discussion by all the governments affected.

ANAHEIM WOMAN PLANS APARTMENT BUILDING

ANAHEIM, Dec. 30.—Mrs. J. H. Clark, wife of J. H. Clark, former proprietor of the Hotel Valencia, has purchased the apartments over the Lutenbach shoe store on the northeast corner of West Center and Lemon streets and has moved away from the Hotel Valencia to take charge of her new property. She expects later to erect an apartment house in Anaheim on a site not yet decided.

Mr. Clark went to Oregon during the Christmas holidays and will visit Canada before his return. He has extensive properties in Sonoma county and he contemplated returning there and may find it necessary to remain there a number of months, or may return to Anaheim to live.

ROWELL GETS PLACE ON CAL. RAIL BOARD

Loveland will be appointed to succeed himself as a member of the State Railroad Commission on January 1, and that Chester H. Rowell of Fresno will be appointed to succeed E. O. Edgerton. Rowell will return at once to Washington to conclude his work as a member of the United States Shipping Board and expects to return to California by the first of February, when he will assume his duties as railroad commissioner.

MILES BECOMES NEW OWNER OF LAUNDRY

F. E. Miles, through a deal closed this week with the Santa Ana Bath House company, will, on January 1, become owner of the business of the American laundry as well as of the building, according to an announcement made today by S. J. Cornell, realty dealer. Miles formerly was in the grocery business here.

The transaction is now passing through escrow while the titles are being examined and brought up to date by a title company.

An eleven-acre Valencia orange grove north of Orange is taken by the company as part of the consideration. The price at which the city property changed hands was not made public.

The property is located at the northeast corner of Third and Spurgeon streets, adjoining Yost's theater.

The building was erected in 1913 by the Santa Ana Bath House company and a swimming pool and bath house were operated on the lower floor for a number of years.

Complete gymnasium equipment was installed on the second floor and used by an athletic club for a period following the completion of the building. The laundry equipment was installed later on the lower floor.

ST. ANNE'S INN WILL BE NAME OF NEW HOTEL MANAGER'S DECISION

Decorative Work, Furnishings Are to Be Models of Beauty

OPENING ABOUT JAN. 10

Room Reservations Showing Increase from Day to Day—Hewins

Saint Anne's Inn—that is the name that Manager William Hewins has definitely decided on for the new tourist hotel.

Hewins has also tentatively decided upon the scale of prices that will be charged at the Inn. These prices will range from $2 per day for a single room without a bath, and $3 with a bath, up, higher prices being charged for the larger rooms, and the suites with sun parlors.

The work of interior decoration and furnishing is being rapidly pushed to completion. The kitchen equipment has already arrived and has been installed. The work of hanging the draperies and curtains will be begun early next week.

Furnishings Luxurious.
The furniture throughout the Inn will be luxurious. All the furniture in the rooms will be solid walnut, as will all the dining room equipment. A few of the suites will be furnished in solid mahogany.

The draperies for the dining room and the lobby, which are on their way and are expected to arrive any day, cost $5000. In all cases the furnishings in the rooms will be the last word in convenience and taste. Some of the furniture for the lobby has already arrived.

Hewins has tentatively engaged an excellent chef, who, if plans work out, will bring his complete staff of culinary artists with him to Santa Ana.

Hewins Enthusiastic
Hewins is enthusiastic over the manner in which the Inn is being furnished, as well as over its prospects. A score of reservations for rooms and suits are already on file, and one of the largest suites is already rented for the rest of the winter.

The landscape effect about the hotel has been wonderfully enhanced during the past few weeks by the springing up of the new lawn, which now sets off the whiteness of Saint Anne's hostelry in an island of emerald green.

It is expected that this lawn, which is sown in clover and bluegrass, will be one of the finest in Southern California.

Plenty of Sunlight
Manager Hewins expressed himself as being very pleased with the fact that the original trees in the yard of the Inn were left standing. He is also enthusiastic over the fact that all of the rooms in the new Inn are outside rooms, and that the location

"All is Not Gold That Glitters"

These days of "market uncertainty" are very strenuous days for the merchant and very perplexing days for the buying public. Will there be a further decline in prices or will the market "stiffen up" after the present wave of hysterical price-cutting has run its course?

We feel it our duty to advise the people of this trade territory just where we stand on the price question, so that no one will be in the least deceived by exaggerations and sensational advertising.

This business owes its growth and wonderful success to your patronage, and we are going to protect in the fullest measure our friends and patrons.

Every price reduction we receive will be passed on to our customers the moment it is received and we feel reasonably sure that our volume of business assures us of every drop in prices the manufacturer makes.

We will gladly meet all competition when quality of merchandise is taken into consideration and you will find by careful comparison that you will buy your home furnishings just as cheaply from us as from the big city stores whose one desire is to unload undesirable merchandise at a time of uncertainty.

Don't be deceived—Remember "all is not gold that glitters."

How $5 Grew

The Outlook for December 22nd. contains the following article:

A Massachusetts paper states that on July 31, 1833, Horace Smith deposited $5.00 in the Dedham Institution for Savings, and in a long period of years this lone five-dollar bill went on accumulating interest. November 12, 1912, the holder of the bank book withdrew from the bank the sum of $112.47, and June 8, 1920, closed his account with the bank, taking out the balance of $134.46.

The only money ever deposited in the bank was the original $5.00. Had no money been withdrawn until the account was finally closed, the sum that would have been taken out would have totaled $281.93.

Any amount of money from $1.00 up will increase at just the same rate if deposited in the Savings Department of the

DECIDE ON PACT WITH THOMSON AS TO PAVING

The city council and Frank Thomson have reached an amicable agreement as to the laying of concrete pavement in front of Thomson's blacksmith shop on East Fourth street. Thomson is doing the work under the supervision of the street superintendent and yesterday completed paving a strip nine feet wide in front of his property.

Thomson at the time paving was begun refused to sign a contract for paving and recently started to do the work on his own initiative and without the formality of getting permission from the city council.

He was stopped by the street superintendent. Councilmen H. H. Dale and C. H. Chapman were appointed by the council as a committee to adjust the matter.

It was agreed that Thomson should do the work under the supervision of the street superintendent. He has paved half the width between the curb and the P. E. tracks.

The half width pavement is nine feet wide and arrangement was made for paving half of the street at this time so that traffic would not be interrupted.

It will take twenty-eight days for the pavement to dry and set sufficiently to sustain traffic. When this piece is opened to public travel, the other half will be paved.

DEATH EXACTS BIG SPORT WORLD TOLL

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE
Pacific Sports Service.

Death exacted a heavy toll among the sportsmen of the world during the year of 1920. Many men nationally and internationally known in various lines of athletic activity, either in recent years or of a past generation, have answered the last and inevitable call. Many of them contributed much to the advancement and fostering of sport and their loss will be keenly felt.

Among the more prominent sportsmen whose names were familiar with the readers of the sports pages were:

Baseball.
George Brown, right fielder, of the New York Giants; William P. (Pud) McTigue, former big league pitcher; William H. Whitaker, one time owner of the Philadelphia Athletics; Henry J. Sparrow, secretary of the New York American club; Charles M. Eden, big league pitcher; Joe Leonard, American Association league third baseman; O. G. Greeves, owner of the Beaumont club of the Texas League; Harry Owen (Dick) Bayless, Pacific Coast league; Louis W. EXTRA ELECTION IS CALLED FOR FEB. 15
SACRAMENTO, Dec. 30.—Governor W. D. Stephens issued a proclamation calling for special elections on February 15 to fill a vacancy in the Twenty-fourth Assembly District caused by the death of William Collins of San Francisco and a vacancy in the Ninth Congressional District caused by the death of C. F. Van de Water of Long Beach. Van de Water was killed in an automobile accident shortly after his election.

Walter F. Lineberger of Long Beach has been nominated by the Republicans to succeed Van de Water. Former Congressman H. Randall, Democrat who was defeated by Van de Water, will try to regain his seat at this election.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—Carlyle Hughes, truck driver, who left standing in the road the machine into which Congressman-elect Charles F. Van de Water crashed to his death some weeks ago, was held to answer in Justice Brown's court and his bail fixed at $10,000.

But according to Mrs. Edith Van de Water, widow of the Congressman, who recounted vividly in court the story of the tragedy, the cause of Van de Water's death was the glaring lights on a motor car coming from the opposite direction. Those lights, she testified, caused her husband to drive into the truck.

DANIELS HITS PLAN FOR REDUCTIONS IN PERSONNEL OF NAVY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Reduction of navy personnel at this time would impair the efficiency of the navy and necessitate the withdrawal of several ships from active duty, Secretary Daniels said today.

Daniels' comment was in reply to the statement of Representative Patrick Kelly of Michigan, that the personnel of the navy should be cut to 100,000.

Kelly, who is a member of the house naval affairs committee, conferred at Marion yesterday with President-elect Harding.

The personnel of the navy is 129,000, Daniels estimated, but the Secretary added that he had recommended an increase to 143,000 as the figure necessary to maintain the navy's strength.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR STANFORD ATHLETICS

That prospects for strong athletic teams at Stanford within the next year or two are bright, was declared last night at the meeting of the Stanford Club of Orange county by Walter Powell, athletic coach at Stanford.

Former Stanford students listened to Powell's address with a great deal of interest. Powell said that while Stanford's football team was severely beaten this fall by the University of California's team, the score run up by U. C. need not discourage those interested in Stanford's athletic success.

"It must be remembered," he said, "that Stanford gave up the American game some years ago, and only returned to it two years ago. It takes more than two years to get back into the game. The fact that when the University of California returned to the American game after it had had its fling at rugby, its team was defeated 90 to 0 by the University of Washington, should be taken into consideration. Then, too, this year U. C. had a wonderfully fine team."

Powell said that there would be some lucky freshmen eligible to fight for places on the Stanford team of 1921. Among them is Hartranft of Fullerton.

Powell said that plans for erecting a great stadium at Stanford had been practically completed. This stadium when finished will seat 60,000 people.

While here, Powell was the guest of Bertrand West. This morning he went to Anaheim to call on Attorney T. L. McFadden, who when he was a student at Stanford was a star end on the football team.

Last evening Powell was a guest at the dinner given to members of the Santa Ana football team by Mrs. Frank Remsburg.

LANDLORD GIVES VIEWS ON RENT
rents much higher than ours, merely because they can force the people to pay such rents, at least for a time, because of the shortage of apartments and rented houses here.

"People become more acquainted with such second rate places where high rents are charged because the tenants are moving in and out frequently—usually as soon as they can find some other place or rent a small cottage or house.

"They do not stop to consider the large proportion of the landlords who have permanent tenants, and who never advertise their prices because they scarcely ever have vacancies."

LEGION AND LABOR PLAN CLOSER UNION
NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Closer relations between the American Legion and organized labor are promised as a result of letters exchanged between F. W. Galbraith Jr., National Commander of the Legion, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Galbraith's letter defined the purpose of the Legion and emphasized its neutrality in politics as a body while in no way infringing on the personal freedom of its members. In reply Gompers explained the effort of the A. F. of L. to make life brighter for its members and to encourage them to "perform the obligations they owe to our country and fellow-men."

Gompers said that he had aided members of trade unions to understand the Legion's purposes and that, on several occasions, resolutions presented in labor meetings had been tabled or defeated because of information he had provided in relation to the work of the Legion. The National Commander replied to this letter by saying that there was nothing in the declaration of the A. F. L. to which the Legion could object and that the Legion subscribes to every word of its sentiment.

STOCK OF OHIO ELEVEN SOARS AMONG FANS

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 30.—With the great inter-sectional gridiron battle between Ohio State and California but two days away, considerable even money was being wagered today that the Buckeye team will triumph by at least seven points.

California adherents had been so confident of a western victory that for some time the odds were about three to two in favor of the Bears. Then the splendidly trained Ohioans appeared on the ground. Snap and fire exhibited by the eastern representatives caused Pacific Coast backers of the Berkeleyites to become more discreet and today it was reported much even money was being placed.

Some California experts have doped the Bruins to win because of the class of their substitutes, but coaches and football experts in general seem to be of the opinion that the Berkeley eleven will be unable to pierce the powerful line of the Columbus aggregation.

Hard Practice Ends.
Hard practice in preparation for the battle had ended today and footballers of the rival universities are scheduled to exert themselves only enough to keep in trim until they trot onto the field in their fighting togs on Saturday afternoon.

Of the numerous stars who will take part in the game, Pete Stinchcomb, perhaps the most resourceful player developed in the middle-west in years, is coming in for the most discussion. Some students of the game go so far as to say the outcome of the big contest will hinge on California's ability to stop Stinchcomb, who displayed an uncanny faculty for turning apparent defeats into victories during the Big Ten season.

"Stop Stinchcomb" is likely to become the cry of Californians.

At any rate Ohio's bating last-minute offensive will be pitted against California's steady, dogged aggressiveness. Both elevens have relied much on the forward pass for the majority of their scores. Each is known to have spent much time perfecting an anti-aircraft defensive. Coach Andy Smith of the Bears has subjected his athletes to a relentless drilling on a forward pass defense and Coach Wilce and his lads have been far from idle in this respect.

More Seats Provided.
That trick plays, novel formations and inside football will be given a whirl is certain. Both teams have taken extraordinary precautions to prevent outsiders from getting a glimpse during their workouts. And when trouble was encountered in keeping the fans and others out of Tournament park both of the teams quietly adjourned to nearby high school fields to resume their practice.

Seating capacity of the big wooden stands has been enlarged to accommodate 42,000 spectators. This will be the largest crowd ever to witness a football game in the west.

The last chance to obtain seats will be offered to the public just before the start of the game Saturday when 2500 seats will be sold for $2.20 each. A mad scramble is looked for with many times that number on hand clamoring for tickets. Precautions have been taken to prevent their falling into the hands of scalpers.

MOUNTAIN ROAD SAFAGE BAND GUARD OL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The new South American oil field is bringing gray hairs to a group of United States engineers. Geologists believe they have discovered oil in a Bolivian district which is flanked on one side by mountains three miles high, and on the other by an unexplored land, inhabited by savage Indians. There are several million acres of American concession in this remote Bolivian field. They are wasted unless the engineers can outwit the Andes mountains, or the Gran Chaco.

The Gran Chaco is a wild region to the east of the La Paz district of Bolivia, where the new oil field has been found. A white man crossed it once, they say. But he died in 1850. He was one of the Spanish conquistadores. Other venturesome men have since attempted the journey since, but the Indians got 'em. The Andes bulk from 15,000 to 17,000 feet high, to the west of the field, cutting off access to the Pacific Ocean. No railroads cross the range in this region. Tunnels are impossible. But the world needs oil, and American "oil hounds" are on the job, and that it is said here, means that the Gran Chaco, which has resisted the white man from Pizarro's day to this, must now be forced to yield.

Pipe Line Proposed
A 500-mile pipe line across a neck of the Gran Chaco would carry oil from the La Paz field to a point on the Parrana river, and from there it could be tanked to the South American Atlantic seaboard. United States government field men who have recently returned from this territory say a small army would be needed to fight the Indians while laying the pipe line through their territory, and that a constant guard would be necessary along its entire length to prevent its destruction.

Other parts of the new South American oil field offer fewer transportation difficulties, but none, it was said here, have more promising indications of yield than the Bolivian district. United States government trade representatives, after a year's survey of the territory, expressed the belief that an oil field great in area, but as yet of unknown production, extends the length of South America just east of the Andes. Explorers of a dozen countries are trying the length and breadth of this region, with American companies easily in the lead, both in the number of parties in the field and in the amount of acreage for which concessions have been obtained.

Americans in Lead
Great reticence and secrecy have been maintained by American oil interests about their South American prospects and accomplishments. Government reports here indicate, however, that American concessions are so extensively scattered throughout every possible field in South America that wherever they "dig" they come up with oil. The country will probably be in a position to control the largest acreage of any foreign group.

All South American countries are chary of permitting outright sale to foreigners of oil land rights, according to information here. Concessions permit the holder, under governmental regulations, including a tax of a percentage of production, only to lease the land for a prescribed number of years with rights of lease-renewal.

WOMAN 'BREAKS IN' TO JAIL TO ALLOW HER BEARD TO GROW
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—A woman has voluntarily gone to jail in Newcastle, Del., in order that her beard may grow, shielded from the public gaze. She is Mrs. Edward Ferris, and for many years she has been the showgirl of a circus and displayed her luxuriant whiskers. She was thrifty and managed to save $7000. Nine years ago Ferris, a glass blower of Millville, N. J., wooed and won her.

She married him and shaved off her chief stock in trade. Ferris took her money and invested it in oil stocks, which were never heard of again. A year ago he left her and his 4-year-old daughter.

She was in desperate straits. She could not raise her beard unless she found privacy. She decided a jail would be the best place. She put her daughter in a home and hired a horse and carriage, which she sold in Tuckerton, N. J., for $20, but let her let her beard grow. She tried the experiment again in Chester, Pa. Once more the authorities were annoyingly merciful. Having failed in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, she decided to try a third time in Delaware. She was arrested in Wilmington and sent to the jail. The beard has begun to grow.

WILSON ADVISED TO GRANT ROADS GRACE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—President Wilson was advised by the Interstate Commerce commission to sign the bill recently passed by congress amending the Transportation act, so as to defer until January 1, 1922, operation of section ten of the Clayton anti-trust act. The recommendation by the commission to which the President referred the bill, was understood to have been by a vote of six to four.

The anti-trust act section which would be suspended prohibits railroads purchasing equipment and other supplies from concerns in which the roads are interested except with approval of the Interstate Commerce commission.

W. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, recently requested the President to veto the amendment, declaring it simply legalizes a great steal from the American public.

MARCH FIELD AIRMEN FLY 1,161,840 MILES

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 30.—Marchfield pilots have flown around the world forty-six times during the last year, or would have done so had they not been killed. According to figures computed, aviators of the local camp have traveled through the air in twelve months a distance of 1,161,840 miles. Since the field was established three years ago planes have been aloft more than 50,000 hours. Those to 500 flying hours have been put into a record. There have been but seven flying fatalities. It is believed no other field in the United States can point to such a record.

GIVE PROGRAMS AT GROVE CHURCHES

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 30.—Christmas exercises were held at the Baptist and Methodist churches last Thursday evening. Both churches were crowded and the programs by the Sunday school classes were enjoyed by all. Those present received sacks of candy from the Christmas trees.

Ranchers in the Magnolia school district, northwest of Garden Grove, held a meeting Wednesday night for the purpose of considering a proposal for a pool of 1000 acres with the object of leasing to drill for oil.

There are many people in the Magnolia district and a number of oil experts, who have examined the territory, believe that there is oil underlying the Magnolia section. The success in the Huntington Beach field gives encouragement to those who want to drill northwest of Garden Grove.

There are a number of leasing propositions under consideration in the Magnolia district. It is proposed by some of the ranchers that a big acreage be combined and leased to a big company—that will start operation soon and keep on drilling until the job is finished.

UNEXPECTED GUESTS CAUSE WOMAN'S DEATH

FULLERTON, Dec. 30.—Excitement over the early arrival of Christmas guests resulted in the death of Mrs. Mary M. Haskell, 64; wife of F. J. Haskell, Olinda oil man.

Mrs. Haskell was busy preparing the Christmas dinner which was to have been served at 5 o'clock. The guests were expected to arrive shortly before that hour but they came about noon. Their unexpected arrival caused Mrs. Haskell to drop with apoplexy. She died at 2 o'clock.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the McAuley chapel, Fullerton. Interment will take place at Loma Vista cemetery. A husband and daughter are the survivors.

PLAN ARRANGEMENT OF NEW C. C. OFFICES

ANAHEIM, Dec. 30.—E. C. Vanderbilt, commercial agent of the W. U. T. Co., looked over the new premises of the C. C. and had his representative, Mr. Partridge, make plans for the decoration of the 12x45 foot space for which his company will within the next week, sign a three years' lease. The Western Union will install standard office equipment, counters, tables and other furniture to be of golden oak with a three-color wall scheme. Instead of constructing a wooden partition separating the C. C. and Auto Club of Southern California offices from the telephone office, the committee agreed that it would be worth while to construct a plaster partition to the main doors, the walls to run up from floor to ceiling; thereby entirely sealing off the noise of the instruments and making a much handsomer appearance for both offices without additional expense.

The partition will be so constructed that it can be removed without any damage to the property, the two front doors being divided in the middle by a pillar, and hanging a few inches on the oblique so that each entrance will be private.

This can be done with very little added cost, part of which the Auto Club has kindly consented to share.

The C. C. and Auto Club will use the south half of the room, which will be decorated with enamel of a gray tint on the cement floor, buff walls and ceiling, and old ivory trim and base board.
